

The Owl and the Pussy Cat

Lyrics: Edward Lear; Melody: Jen Kano copyright 2011

♩ = 250      D                      Bm                      G                      D                                      A

Oh the owl and the pus - sy cat went — to sea, in a beau - ti - ful pea green Kit - ty said to the Owl, — You el - e - gant fowl! How — charm - ing - ly sweet you De - ar pig, are you wil - ling to sell for one cent Yo - ur ring? Said the Pig, I

D                                      Bm                      G                      Em                                      A boat, — Oh they took some hon - ey, and plen - ty of mon - ey, wrapped up in a sing! — Said the Owl let us mar - ry too long we have tar - ried But what shall we will. — So they took it a - way, and were mar - ried next day By the Tur - key

D    Em

five dol - lar note. — The — owl looked up to the stars a - - bove, — and do for a ring? — They — sailed a - way for a year and a day to the wholives on the hill. — They — dined on min - ce, and slic - es of quince, which they

D                      Bm                      A                                      G                      A                                      G sang to a small gui - tar, — O love - ly kit - ty O Kit - ty my land where the bong tree grows — And there in the wo - od a Pig - gy wig ate with a run - cible spoon; — And hand in hand, on the edge of the D    G                      D                      Bm                                      G love, what a beau - ti - ful kit - ty you are, you are, you are, — what a stood with a ring at the end of her nose, her nose, her nose, — With a sand, They danced — by the light of the moon, the moon, the moon. — O they

D                      A                                      D beau - ti - ful cat you — are!

 ring at the end of her nose.
 danced by the light of the moon!

Rhythm: waltz